

UNION DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

WE, the Democratic party, having from the date of its organization, been in favor of the maintenance of the Union and the preservation of the Constitution, and seeing in the present condition of the country the deplorable effects of a departure from its time-honored and conservative principles, and the triumph of sectionalism; and firmly believing that the Union and the Constitution are to be preserved only by the restoration of that party to power, we invite all true Union men throughout the land to unite with us in sustaining its organization and carrying out its principles; Therefore,

Resolved, 1. That we reaffirm and endorse the political principles that from time to time have been set forth by the National Conventions of the Democratic party.

2. That we are indissolubly attached to the Constitution, by which the Union of these States was formed and established; and that a faithful observance of its principles can alone continue the existence of the Union, and the permanent happiness of the people.

3. That the present civil war has mainly resulted from the long continued, unwise, and fatal agitation, in the North, of the question of domestic slavery; the conservative organization of a geographical party, known as the sectional platform, adopted at Buffalo, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, and Chicago, and the development thereof by sectional hate and jealousy, producing (as has been long foreseen) the present civil war, the resultant of the South of secession, disunion, and armed resistance to the General Government, and terminating in a bloody strife between those who should have been forever bound together by fraternal bonds, and who are now separated by a calamity which we are now to meet as loyal citizens, striving for the adoption of that mode of settlement best calculated to again restore union and harmony.

4. That in the present crisis, the people are likely to result in a satisfactory adjustment of the matters in dispute between the North and the South, and especially those measures which would have secured the border slave States to the Union, and a happy co-operation of the two sections in the national and local measures to procure a return of the most Southern States to their allegiance, the Republican party assumed a fearful responsibility, and acted in total disregard of the best interests of the whole country.

5. That if the party in power had shown the same desire to settle, by amicable adjustment, our internal dissensions before hostilities had actually commenced, that the Administration has recently exhibited to avoid a war with our ancient ally, Great Britain, we confidently believe that peace and harmony would now reign throughout all our borders.

6. That the maintenance of the Union upon the principles of the Federal Constitution should be the controlling object of all who profess loyalty to the Government; and in our judgment this purpose can only be accomplished, by the restoration of the party in the Southern States, which, by a counter revolution, displace those who control and direct the present rebellion. That no effort to create or sustain such a party can be successful which is not based upon a definite settlement of the question at issue between the two sections; and we therefore demand that such a settlement be made by additional constitutional guarantees, either initiated by act of Congress, or through the medium of a National Convention.

7. That the Republican party has fully demonstrated its inability to conduct the Government through the present difficulties.

8. That the Northern section, opposed to the twin heresies of Northern sectionalism and Southern secession, as inimical to the Constitution; and that free men, as they value the twin of civil liberty and the peace of the country, should throw indignation upon those who have so long and so impudently maintained the present administration.

9. That in this national emergency the Democracy of Indiana, banishing all feeling of passion and resentment, will recollect only their duty to the whole country; that this duty should not be evaded by the spirit of conquest or subjugation, nor for the purpose of overthrowing or interfering with the rights or institutions of the States, but to defend and maintain the supremacy of the Constitution, and to preserve the Union with all the dignity, equality and rights of the several States unimpaired; and that as soon as these objects are accomplished the war ought to cease.

10. That we will sustain, with all our energies, a war for the maintenance of the Constitution, and of the integrity of the Union under the Constitution; but we are opposed to a war for the emancipation of the negroes, or the subjugation of the Southern States.

11. That the purposes avowed and advocated by the Northern disunionists, to liberate and arm the negro slaves, is unconstitutional, insulting to loyal citizens, a disgrace to the age, is calculated to retard the suppression of the rebellion and incite to an unbridled anarchy.

12. That the total disregard of the writ of habeas corpus by the authorities over us, and the seizure and imprisonment of the citizens of loyal States where the judiciary is in full operation, without warrant of law and without assigning any cause for doing so, are flagrant violations of the Constitution and are a gross usurpation of power, which should receive the stern rebuke of every loyal citizen and of every man who prizes the security and blessings of life, liberty and property.

13. That the liberty of speech and of the press are guaranteed to the people by the Constitution, and no law, no power, no usurpation of these rights; they are inalienable to the citizen and formidable to tyrants only. And the attempts which have been made since our present unfortunate troubles, to muzzle the press and stifle free discussion are exercises of despotic power against which freedom revolts and which can not be tolerated without converting freemen into slaves.

14. That the seizure of Sibley and Mason, on a neutral vessel, on the high seas, and on alleged grounds of international law, and so legal, is a violation of such law, and so illegal. In the former, we lament that our nation has been humiliated by their surrender, under a flag of truce; in the latter, it was the duty of the Administration at once to have disavowed the act of their officers, and instead of incarcerating the captives in Fort Warren, and have immediately repaired the wrong by placing them, as far as possible, in the same condition in which they were captured had had them. In either event, the act of the Administration was vacillating and cowardly, and degrading to the dignity of a great nation.

15. That the action of the Republican party, as manifested in the partisan character of all appointments to the Administration by civil office, and in the party annexation by the Republican members of Congress, and in the party character of the legislative action of that body, the peculiar dogmas of that party, have demonstrated that their professional "sacrificing party platforms, and party organizations, upon the altar of their country," are but so many hypocritical and false pretences, by which they hope to delude the unwary into their support; and we warn all loyal persons, who love their country, not to be deceived thereby.

16. That the disclosures made by the investigating committee in Congress of the enormous treasuries have stolen into the army and navy departments, implicating the heads of those departments in a conspiracy, and an actual participation in a system of corruption, and that our brave soldiers have been deprived of their proper supplies, and our Government threatened with bankruptcy, demands a thorough investigation into all our expenditures, both State and National, and that a speedy and marked example be made of all such "birds of prey," who, taking advantage of the necessities of our country, have fed and fattened upon public plunder.

Resolved, That the meritorious conduct of the Indiana troops in the field where victory has been won, and the gallant deeds of the people of this State with the highest gratitude to the gallant sons, and that we send our best wishes to our officers and men, dispersed throughout the country, and the heartfelt greetings of every Democrat for their further brilliant achievements in the coming contests for the maintenance of the Constitution and the Union.

Cephalic Pills

CURE

Sick Headache

CURE

Nervous Headache

All kinds of Headache.

By the use of these Pills the periodic attacks of Nervous or Sick Headache may be prevented, and if taken at the commencement of an attack immediate relief from pain and sickness will be obtained.

They seldom fail in removing the Nausea and Headache to which females are so subject. They act gently on the bowels—removing Constipation. For Literary Men, Students, Delicate Females, and all persons of sedentary habits, they are valuable as a Laxative improving the appetite, giving tone and vigor to the digestive organs, and restoring the natural elasticity and strength of the whole system.

The Cephalic Pills are the result of long investigation and carefully conducted experiments, having been in use many years, during which time they have prevented and relieved a vast amount of pain and suffering from Headache, whether originating in the nervous system or from a deranged state of the stomach.

They are entirely vegetable in their composition, and may be taken at all times with perfect safety without making any change of diet, and the absence of any disagreeable taste renders it easy to administer them to children.
